

LEGAL VOLUNTEER (TRAINEESHIP / FELLOWSHIP)

We are a new European NGO working on strategic litigation in privacy matters in the private sector. For our office in Vienna, we are continuously looking for legal or technical trainees and fellows to [A] either work as a legal trainee with our team on existing projects, or [B] work as a legal fellow on your own privacy project that can then be enforced by noyb. A pan-European approach and cooperation with other organizations and groups is key for us. Our work should have a direct legal impact for data subjects and we encourage novel and innovative approaches to privacy litigation. You can find out more about noyb here. We aim to make each trainee an integrated member of our team and aim to share practical experience with you. You will work closely with our legal team.

[A] Key tasks for legal trainees:

- Legal research
- Factual investigations
- Basic legal advice for our members
- Preparing briefs
- Presentations
- Translations

[B] Key tasks for legal fellows:

- Identify an issue of privacy non-compliance (ideally part of your previous or ongoing projects or research)
- Identify different enforcement options with our help
- Finalize legal submissions to be filed by us / our partners
- Help out our legal team independent of your project (similar tasks to interns)

Minimal requirements:

- Strong interest in privacy law
- Interns: Law degree obtained at an EU university
- Fellows: Masters degree in a relevant field of law (technology, privacy/data protection, human rights, EU law)
- Robust understanding of GDPR / EU law
- Excellent command of legal English (English being our working language), additional EU languages is a plus
- No conflict of interest

Key facts:

- Become a volunteer member of noyb
- “Daily allowances” of about € 528/month
- Costs of basic housing in Vienna (shared apartment)
- Financial support for your travels to Vienna
- Public transportation tickets
- About 40h/week (flexibility over working hours)
- Duration: about 2-6 months
- Apply at any time (next term: see noyb.eu)

What we can offer:

- Projects that can change the legal landscape
- Self-determined working hours
- International environment
- Open and friendly atmosphere

Your application should contain:

- Curriculum vitae
- A cover letter stating why you would like to work with us
- Samples of existing work (e.g. publications, seminar papers, work for relevant courses)
- Your availability and possible requirements
- Fellows [B]: Please include a summary of your proposed project (problem and proposed solution, existing research, state of your work, other similar litigation, etc.)

...via email to Phoebe Baumann (pb@noyb.eu)

Any questions? ...feel free to ask!