

LEGAL INTERNSHIPS / FELLOWSHIPS

We are a new European NGO working on strategic litigation in privacy matters in the private sector. For our office in Vienna, we are continuously looking for legal or technical interns and fellows to [A] either work as a legal intern with our team on existing projects, or [B] work as a legal fellow on your own privacy project that can then be enforced by noyb. A pan-European approach and cooperation with other organizations and groups is key for us. Our work should have a direct legal impact for data subjects and we encourage novel and innovative approaches to privacy litigation. You can find out more about noyb here. We aim to make each intern an integrated member of our team and aim to share practical experience with you. You will work closely with our legal team.

[A] Key tasks for legal interns:

- Legal research
- Factual investigations
- Basic legal advice for our members
- Preparing briefs
- Presentations
- Translations

[B] Key tasks for legal fellows:

- Identify an issue of privacy non-compliance (ideally part of your previous or ongoing projects or research)
- Identify different enforcement options with our help
- Finalize legal submissions to be filed by us / our partners
- Help out our legal team independent of your project (similar tasks to interns)

Minimal requirements:

- Strong interest in privacy law
- Interns: Law degree obtained at an EU university
- Fellows: Masters degree in a relevant field of law (technology, privacy/data protection, human rights, EU law)
- Robust understanding of GDPR / EU law
- Excellent command of legal English (English being our working language), additional EU languages a plus
- No conflict of interest
- A good sense of humor

Key facts:

- 40h/week (flexibility over working hours)
- Tax free “daily allowance” of about € 528/month*
- Costs of basic housing in Vienna (shared apartment)
- Limited travel assistance
- Duration: 3-6 months (can be shorter)

 We offer a daily allowance for NGO members according to Austrian tax law of € 26,40 per working day. The estimated monthly amount is based on 20 working days per month.*

What we can offer:

- Projects that can change the legal landscape
- Flexible working hours
- International environment
- Open and friendly atmosphere

Your application should contain:

- Curriculum vitae
- A cover letter stating why you would like to work with us
- Samples of existing work (e.g. publications, seminar papers, work for relevant courses)
- Your availability and possible requirements
- Fellows: Please include a summary of your proposed project (problem and proposed solution, existing research, state of your work, other similar litigation, etc.)

...via email to Ioannis Kouvakas and Gaëtan Goldberg (ik@noyb.eu and gg@noyb.eu)